SUBJECT: - Raksha Mantri's Awards for Excellence, 2020

Reference this Directorate General letter of even number dated 15.07.2020, on the above mentioned subject.

2. As a regular practice, Directorate General vide letter under reference, has invited nominations from Cantonment Boards/DEOs for Raksha Mantri's Awards for Excellence for the year 2020, in the proformas enclosed.

3. Due to ongoing pandemic of COVID-19 and imposition of nation-wide lockdown and thereafter precaution measures and restrictions, the normal functioning of the offices have been affected and implementation of various development projects/schemes of the Department have also been impacted/delayed.

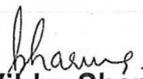

3.1 The DGDE in the fortnightly Video Conference with PD's had also discussed this issue with the PD's.

4. Keeping in view the same and ongoing restrictions due to COVID-19 pandemic situation, it needs to be considered if Raksha Mantri's Awards for excellence in specified fields as education, schools for specially abled, survey works, etc. as already specified can be awarded.

5. Notwithstanding the above, there are several Cantonment Boards which have done exemplary work in the sphere of medical care and health services for COVID affected patients. Similarly, some DEO circles may have done some exceptional work inspite of the restrictions in place. Cantonment Boards/DEOs who have taken various innovative measures and contributed in exemplary manner in various fields including public services for general public during the pandemic of COVID-19 and restriction of its spreading, may please be recommended by the PDDEs alongwith detailed note with supported documents/records for consideration. Such nomination may please be provided to this Directorate General upto 07.11.2020, duly supported with documents, etc.

6. DGDE has approved.
